

Sacramental

We believe that the sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion are public affirmations of our faith in Jesus Christ and unifying actions for all members of the faith. By joining with our fellow believers across the globe, we affirm through the sacraments our identity in Christ and our solidarity with our brothers and sisters around the world.